About

With a graphic design background and a passion for fashion, I excel in styling, trends analysis, and client advising. Experienced in product setup, labelling, and store operations, I aim to enhance my retail skills with a focus on personalised customer service.

Experience

● students

University of Chester | Oct 2022 - Oct 2023

Graphic design postgraduate and really passionate about fashion. I am looking for opportunities and challenges to develop my abilities and skills. Have great personality and communication skills.

Have a good sense of beauty and have good fashion taste. I love indie brands, have good eyes for fashion trends, and I am good at starting a conversation with fashion.
