E-Commerce Assistant

pixel direct | Feb 2022 - Jun 2022

- negotiating suitable numbers with customers.
- if bought I will begin examining the products and grading its condition accordingly
- if products required refurbishment, I was expected to refurbish it to the appropriate standard.
- then I labelled, packaged, and prepared the products for display
- took suitable photographs of the products
- presented the products to the marketplaces such as Amazon or Ebay
- found buyers for each product, some which were bought in Mass.
- this job taught me a lot about being a good salesman and a good talker

Waitressing

Clayton Hotel | Nov 2021 - Jan 2022

- Serving customers food with haste and efficiency
- Excellent active listening skills whilst giving attention to guests at busy times
- Patient when serving guests, making them feel comfortable whilst eating
- Consistently collected, washed glasses and sanitized bar and tables for customer use

Project Volunteer

Stewarts | Oct 2019 - Jan 2020

- worked closely with Premier league inspire in conjunction with the West Ham Foundation and Stewart's law.

- was given the opportunity to network with Stewarts' employees from across the business to gain an insight into the possible career paths available within a law firm, from traditional legal roles to accountancy, HR and marketing.
- It was an opportunity for me to discuss my passions, skills and interests, and to hear about the career options available to me.
- Met with football celebrities and other students to understand educational desires, identify current issues and provide advice on academic, career and vocational plans.
