About

As an ex Sales Assistant at Trading House "Villia", I specialised in providing high-quality customer service and comprehensive product knowledge of premium fabrics. Skilled in trend awareness, client communication, and maintaining a clean work environment, I also showed my adaptability by creating engaging social media content for the brand. I'm also working as a UGC (user-generated content) creator.

Experience

● Sales Assistant

Trading House "Villia" | Jun 2023 - Aug 2023

My recent role : Sales Assistant I was responsible for communication with clients, delivering information about the products in the shop of premium fabrics. My daily tasks were engaging with clients' needs and keeping the workspace clean. I was also making content for the brand, posting new kinds of goods on social media to attract new customers and communicating with them online. I was in charge of keeping up to date with recent trends and fashion shows to provide a high quality customer service.
