Assistant Coach

Track Academy | Feb 2023 - Mar 2023

- Communication when coaching the children is always important so that they know what they have to do, also because they are children you have to deliver the session at a slower pace so that they understand and know what to do.
- Being to adapt to any situation that may occur within the session, i.e. someone gets injured, a disagreement, etc. To be able to dissolve the situation effectively and quickly.
- When doing a session with kids you have to make it enjoyable for them as they are children they have a low attention span.
