About

Greetings to my readers,

My name is Philippe Hugot and I'm an operational General manager in distribution/retail (fashion, Cosmetics, restaurants, in France and abroad).

Today I have 4 main skills:

Management of a P&L with a high degree of autonomy, management of large multicultural and multidisciplinary teams, a great capacity for adaptation and resilience and commercial development.

My plan is to join a dynamic company with an ambitious and stimulating project as Managing Director or BU Director.
