About

A hardworking and dedicated individual, who is motivated to accept new challenges and exceed expectations. I have the ability to work well within a team and independently. I am keen to develop my knowledge and skills further by taking on new opportunities and challenges.

Experience

- Academic Tutor

| May 2022 - Oct 2023

- I work with students on a 1 to 1 basis, in small study areas and home environments (and also including zoom)
- I track students learning progression in order to identify opportunities to enhance their knowledge and support students in achieving their academic goal. Through this, I prepare lesson plans tailored to each student.
- Additionally, I support students with their homework and exam/assessment preparation.
- I also help students to prioritise and manage their work.

Education & Training

2023 - 2025

- William Morris

Sixth Form,

2018 - 2023

- West London Free School
