

Lula Robinson

University student studying fashion styling and production at London college of Fashion, UAL

View profile on Dweet

Languages

English

About

I am a highly motivated university student In my first year at London College of Fashion, UAL, studying Fashion Styling and Production. I have experience working in fast paced environments whilst facing deadlines and have proven to quickly build relationships with customers. I am looking to work in London part time alongside my studies. At the root of everything, for me fashion is where my ultimate passions lie and to have the opportunity to be in this field for work would be more than ideal.

BRANDS WORKED WITH

Calcot

twenty 12 hair boutique

Experience

● Housekeeper

Calcot | Apr 2023 - Aug 2023

For this role I worked as a housekeeper in Calcot&Spa hotel. This involved doing the evening turndown service on the weekends, as well as working as a team in the week cleaning the guests rooms and preparing them for arrivals. This role has enabled me to work efficiently in a fast paced environment facing deadlines. It has also sharpened my eye for detail and order.

● Salon Assistant

twenty 12 hair boutique | May 2021 - Mar 2023

For this role I was working part-time as a salon assistant in a hairdressers, in this position I undertook a variety of roles that have allowed me to build on some vital skills. I regularly greeted customers into the salon and washed their hair. While doing so I made sure to engage with them, ensuring they had an enjoyable and comfortable experience throughout. I also took on the role of making sure the salon was clean and tidy at all times, preparing and serving the beverages for clients, answering the phone and entering bookings into the system. This role has allowed me to build upon my organisational skills, learning to smoothly keep a place tidy at all times as well as gaining the ability to naturally build relationships with clients.