About

British Fashion Council Scholar, stylist, creative director, fashion and accessories designer with half a decade of fashion experience. She explores Afrofuturism and her Nigerian – British identity. With the use of her textiles and fine art background she narrates different stories in collection, offering unique perspectives. She recently had her first fashion film screened in the Victoria and Albert Museum for the African Fashion Exhibition night with GUAP magazine. She holds a focus on sustainability, her pieces are futuristic while using recycled materials. This is achieved also with her accessories brand that has been labelled the accessories “Redefining the ‘it’ bag” from Refinery 29 and named on of “31 cool British brands” by Who What Wear. Arielle is a multi-disciplinary who is influenced by traditional craftsmanship, her heritage and London culture.
