About

An enthusiastic, eager individual with the insatiable desire to learn. I can offer fresh and young perspectives to the workplace. Very adaptable to my environment and there's no challenge I would pass up. As an international student I can overcome barriers such as cultural barriers within the workplace and connect with customers that come from different ethnic backgrounds and make them feel welcome. In addition, I aim to utilise my skills to further the mission of the company I'm working at and use my self-driven passion and motivation to spread good moral in the workplace. My timings are flexible I have Wednesday and Friday free, as well as Monday's and Thursday's after 5pm, and Tuesday's up until 2PM, and the weekend off as well.
