Experience

● Teaching assistant /understudy

55 GispY rdNorwood London SE27 9NP | Jun 2022 - Jan 2022

I got the opportunity to supervise a primary teacher as a teacher assistant this job took a lot of perseverance as had both the responsibility to supervise children of ages 5-6 and complete tasks given within specific times zone. This job enhanced my interactive and creative skills.

● Receptionist/understudy

Slaybox limited 55 Loughborough rd Sw9 7th | Jan 2022 - Jan 2023

being a receptionist at slaybox hair salon meant would greet new/visiting customers, book their appointments and introduce them to their stylists. This job also consisted of admin work meaning I'd book in appointments reply to enquiries both in person online and over the phone and I also had to keep track of the calendar system ensuring both hairstylist and customers had reminders of their booked appointments. while also working at slay box as an understudy also had to analyse and communicate with hairstylists about their positions and techniques this expanded my knowledge about hairstyling and worked my communication and multitasking skills .

● Intern

The Roundhouse | Jan 2019 - Jan 2020

the Roundhouse club being an hugely creative meant that i had the opportunity to meet and great with huge independant creative artists from producers, vocalists and instrument play.Round house club challenged my teamwork skills as we had to work in groups however the roundhouse club improved my teamwork ability:

● Ushers/waiter

Appetite4Work | Dec 2023 - Now

At appetite4work agency my shifts alternate from Chiswick (the brewery) to Waterloo (the old vic).With my shifts alternating so do my positions .at the brewery as a plate waiter I have the duty of dealing with queries plate hand out and plate clean up as well as cup polishing .However at the old vic being an usher I was given the job to guide guest to exits and also had the opportunity to work alongside Patrick fortton and other significant actors .
