About

A creative copywriter who owns twelve Elton John t-shirts, I've spent a decade channelling this obsessive nature into writing for fashion titles and luxury brands across the fashion, beauty, interiors, retail and fitness sectors.

Working both in-house and freelance, I have created editorial content and brand copy for Liberty, Malone Souliers, Grazia, Bebold, Amanda Wakeley, House & Garden, xojane, D'SCENE, Homes and Antiques, Polyester and The Sunday Times Style, amongst others. If you'd like to chat about your brand's storytelling (or if you have a rare Elton tee for sale), please get in touch.
