About

With over ten years of experience in the apparel and fashion industry, I am a passionate and creative Print & Fashion Designer at Zione Brand, a leading online retailer of women's clothing and accessories. I have a BA in Fashion Design from Istituto Marangoni and am skilled in Print Design, Repeats, Adobe Illustrator, Textile Design, and Layout Design.

At Zione Brand, I am responsible for designing all print designs for the collection, including all-over prints and specialising in print engineering. I also research new trends and inspirations, sketch collections, present at design team meetings, build mood boards and colour palettes, and lead the print brief to present to the Creative Director. Additionally, I manage and coordinate the brand's social media and editorial content, creating copy text, editing photos and videos, assisting with photoshoots, and developing the overall concept for the collection. I have created on-brand and visually compelling looks for editorial projects with a 25% increase in social media engagement. My mission is to deliver innovative and appealing prints and collections that reflect the brand's identity and vision and resonate with the customers and the market.
