About

At OAK + FORT, I've fine-tuned my retail skills, excelling in client relations and fast-paced environments. My fashion modeling background enriches my styling acumen, ensuring personalised customer experiences. Proficient in a range of retail tasks, I thrive in boutique to flagship store settings across diverse product categories.

Experience

● Retail Sales Associate

OAK + FORT, Shops | Oct 2022 - Mar 2023

Effectively build clientele in a fast-paced retail sales environment to create long-lasting client-associate relationships, ensuring the forwarding and outboarding of promotions, sales, and new inventory announcements to client Collaborate with co-workers in stock, merchandising, and styling to establish an efficient and amiable work environment Working in fast-paced retail sales while attending full-time studies has not only increased my skills of communication and reasoning, but has also increased my crucial skill of time-management.

● Fashion/Advertising Model

DULCEDO MODELS INC | Jun 2022 - Feb 2024

Collaborate with hosts of agents, photographers, stylists, and makeup artists to provide exceptional modeling services to print, advertising, and editorial clients. Balancing e-commerce, portfolio, and print work to build a well-rounded history and skill base.

● Political Canvasser

Liberal Party of Canada | Feb 2022 - Jun 2022

Focusing on door-to-door and telephone based contact of constituents in the geographical riding for the purposes of spreading knowledge and awareness of a political candidate in the lead up to a major Canadian election, this role required truly extreme versatility, time management, interpersonal skills, and the ability to adapt to environments that could occasionally be extreme or unsafe. One of the most crucial experiences of my life in the development of my interpersonal and communicative skills.
