About

Personal statement I am a dedicated, hard-working and enthusiastic individual acting professionally in the tasks I am set out to do. I am willing to help customers and carry out admin work, working behind the scenes or at the front to help the business in any way I can to the highest standards, taking care in the service I provide. I would say I got the extra mile for customers as I gain satisfaction from pleasing others. I am a highly organised and complete tasks efficiently to a high standard. I have already gained a lot of experience and can work well as a team and individually through my experience as a customer assistant at my previous jobs as listed below.
