About

As a fashion designer with 7 and more, years of experience I am currently looking for some new job opportunities and would be available in a month.

My experience in Ferragamo in Florence and Viktor&Rolf in Amsterdam, gave me the awareness of how much I am worth as a Designer thanks to the knowledge I have acquired in the field of clothing and thanks to the comparison with more experienced colleagues or younger colleagues.

My current position is Designer RTW, and I'm working directly to the Head Designer and the Creative Director for Show, Pre-collection and special project; I'm specialized in Denim, Sportswear, Leather and Tailoring.

My educational background, which includes studies in Fashion Design at Polimoda and the Art school in Florence, has allowed me to draw on my innate creative skills that have evolved over the years thanks to work experience.
