About

With a robust background spanning across various sectors, I am a dynamic and adaptable professional known for delivering exceptional customer service and driving sales growth. From my experience in luxury retail at Heathrow's World Duty-Free to leadership roles in hospitality and retail environments, I've honed my skills in inventory management, team collaboration, and creating engaging customer experiences. Fluent in multiple languages and currently pursuing a degree in Economics, I bring a blend of linguistic proficiency, leadership acumen, and a keen eye for detail to every role. Whether it's navigating high-pressure situations, training teams, or optimising operational procedures, I thrive on challenges and am dedicated to achieving excellence in everything I do.

Experience

● Supervisor

Nandos | Jun 2022 - Sep 2023

- Maintained high standards of customer service during high-volume, fast paced operations
- Assisted management in stock ordering and food hygiene checks
- Followed procedures for safe food preparation, assembly, and presentation
- Followed safety and hygiene procedures in order to maintain food standards
- Kept track of production and food wastage, as well as often end of the day/week stock counts
- Put effort into training new team members efficiently
- Handled rotas weekly, making sure there was enough workforce each shift

● Assistant Manager

Foodies | Nov 2021 - Aug 2022

In-charge of overseeing the day-to-day operations of the store, including excellent customer service for all customers to ensure a pleasant experience for everyone. I was responsible for creating and implementing operational procedures and policies to optimise store efficiency, reduce costs and maximise profitability. I also managed inventory, ordering, and merchandising, ensuring that the store maintained a well-stocked and attractive appearance for customers. Additionally, I was responsible with helping train staff, fostering a positive and productive work environment, and ensuring compliance with company policies and regulations. Through my good cooperation and eye for detail, I was able to achieve significant improvements in store performance, resulting in increased sales.

Olerio, Hospitality/Fine dining

- Built a collaborative relationship with colleagues and customers through customer service
