

Ioana Lungu

I am a very sociable, passionate and caring woman who has a taste for the finer things in life

View profile on Dweet

Languages

English (Fluent)

Italian (Basic)

Spanish (Basic)

About

With a strong foundation in customer service from roles as a hostess and food server, I excel in creating exceptional guest experiences. My freelance makeup artistry has refined my attention to detail and ability to offer personalised services, making me ideal for dynamic retail environments.

BRANDS WORKED WITH

Concept Events

Mon Caprice Restaurant

Experience

● Hostess for Events

Concept Events | Jan 2016 - Jan 2018

Greeted guests and ensured they had a positive experience from arrival to departure. Managed guest lists, seating arrangements, and addressed any concerns or special requests promptly and professionally. Collaborated with team members to ensure seamless execution of events, contributing to overall success and client satisfaction.

Over the past few years, I've honed my skills and passion for makeup artistry as a freelance makeup artist. I have had the privilege of collaborating with clients to enhance their natural beauty and bring their visions to life. With each project, I've cultivated a reputation for delivering personalized and professional makeup services tailored to individual preferences and occasions.

● Waitress

Mon Caprice Restaurant | Jan 2013 - Jan 2016

As a waitress, I was responsible for providing exceptional customer service in a fast-paced dining environment. My duties included greeting and seating guests, taking food and beverage orders, and ensuring prompt delivery of orders to tables. I maintained cleanliness and organization in the dining area, processed payments accurately, and addressed any customer concerns with professionalism and efficiency.