About

If you're looking for a candidate with:

- Outgoing & charismatic personality
- Motivated and Passionate in the Fashion industry
- Creative and artistic
- Flexibility and open mind to adapt designs.
- Good communication, presentation and negotiation

If so, I will confidently say that you will see this from my CV that I meet these skills and more.

I'm currently a Fashion University Student. I aspire to build my own fashion brand with a purpose of change and building a more diverse and inclusive community. My immense passion for fashion and the industry is what has driven me through my studies and i believe will drive me through my career. I have gained leadership skills as I am also a chairperson of my Universities Pole & Aerial Society. I am described to have a energetic friendly and bubbly personality which always helps me with my social speaking skills. With my work experience I've developed great customer service, as my personality allows me to get along with customers very well to give them the most satisfactory customer experience.
